Baltimore Center Stage Announces 2022 Spring & Summer Break Camps

Dates to support Spring and Summer Break for Independent and Public-School Vacations

BALTIMORE CENTER STAGE, announced today that it will hold in-person Spring and Summer Break Camps for children grades K-12. Campers will explore what things come together to make a story? How do you contribute to your own story, and the stories you share with others? At camp BCS, children will be able to work with others to help bring stories to life via poetry, music, movement, and our featured camp-in-a-box. Children will also get the opportunity to explore the versatility of STEAM. Through the power of bicycles, campers will spin, art and fruit smoothies with pedal power. Camp BCS will give children unlimited opportunities to play and investigate!

“It’s really our pleasure to bring students enriching camp opportunities this Spring and Summer. We wholeheartedly understand the need for safe and well-rounded camp programming in this climate. This is precisely how we are committed to showing up as partners to parents in the Baltimore community,” said Janal Daniel, the theater’s Director of Learning and Social Accountability.

Drop off: 8:30 am
Camp start time: 9:00 am.

This year's Spring Camp Theme is Patchwork Stories and will run in two sessions.
